Job Description and Person Specification

Part-time: Research Assistant (RA)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Reports to</th>
<th>Professor Ioannis Lianos</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Responsible for</td>
<td>None</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grade</td>
<td>6B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Salary</td>
<td>£30,316 – £31,967 (incl. LWA) pro rata, per annum</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Duration</td>
<td>One month with possibility of extension</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hours of work</td>
<td>minimum 8 hours per week, maximum 12 hours per week (flexible time schedule, no fixed location)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Location</td>
<td>Faculty of Laws, Bidborough House</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Start Date</td>
<td>Immediately</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

About the Faculty of Laws, UCL

Since 1826, the Faculty of Laws at UCL has thrived on the great traditions of legal education. It is one of the world’s leading law schools. The Faculty’s world-class academic reputation is confirmed by its ranking in the UK government 2014 Research Assessment Exercise (RAE). Our world class research not only enhances the quality of our teaching and research supervision, but contributes to the solution of global challenges while shaping policy and the practice of law.

The UCL Laws student body numbers around 1,540 students, divided between 500 undergraduate, 450 taught graduate, and 80 graduate research students. The faculty has an academic staff of some 55 professors, lecturers and readers, as well as many visiting professors, lecturers and distinguished judicial visitors, and our dedicated team of professional services staff provides valuable support to both our students and academic staff.

Main duties and responsibilities

The Centre for Law, Economics and Society at UCL (http://www.ucl.ac.uk/laws/) searches for one or two Research Assistants for the various projects of the Centre.

The RAs will assist the Director of the Centre, Professor Ioannis Lianos for various activities:

- Bibliographical research
- Collection, analysis and coding of data
- Editing
- Contributing to the drafting of a report
- Data structuring and cleaning
- Data consistency checks
- Drafting
- Research

Among the different tasks performed, the applicants should be able to contribute to the CLES’ research project on global food value chains.
This work involves contributing to the preparation of a report to be presented to the BRICS competition authorities.

General Responsibilities:
- To adhere to UCL Equal Opportunities policies in all activities, and to actively promote equality of opportunity wherever possible.
- The postholder will maintain an awareness and observation of Fire and Health & Safety Regulations.
- As duties and responsibilities change, this job description will be reviewed and amended in consultation with the postholder.

Person Specification
The person specification outlines the skills, knowledge and experience required for this post. Candidates will be considered based on how well they demonstrate that they meet the criteria for this particular role.

Essential criteria
- An excellent understanding of Competition law and policy
- Excellent knowledge on unfair competition and IP can be an advantage
- Experience in Competition Law with substantial knowledge in Competition Law
- Excellent organisational skills
- Experience in independent research
- Excellent communication skills, both written and oral, and experience of communicating complex issues to a variety of audiences
- Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to work collaboratively with academic and support staff both internally within the Faculty and wider College, and externally
- Diplomacy and tact when dealing with confidential information

Successful Candidate
The successful applicant will be required to contribute to the CLES’ research projects on Global Food Value Chains and Economic Evidence and is expected to have substantial experience in Competition Law.

Salary
Grade 6B

Other Benefits
The postholder will receive a letter of reference from Principal Investigator, Professor Ioannis Lianos.

Application Procedure
To apply kindly send your CV to i.lianos@ucl.ac.uk & lawshr@ucl.ac.uk

Application deadline: 6th October at 12pm